from the author of Suzanne's Diary for Nicholas and Sundays at Tiffany's comes the New York Times bestseller featuring two heartwarming stories of loss, love, and the life-changing power of stories. Anne McWilliams has lost everything after her marriage falls apart and a hurricane destroys her home. She realizes that her life has fallen out of focus, so she takes to the road to ask long-lost friends and strangers a simple question: What's your best story? Can the funny, tragic, inspirational tales she hears on her journey help Anne see what she's been missing? Tyler Bron seemingly has it all: a successful company and more money than he knows how to spend. But he has no life, so he hires a struggling novelist to write one for him. There are no limits to the fictional world that Bron's money can transform into a reality, and he soon becomes the protagonist of a love story beyond his wildest imagination. But will Tyler be able to write the happy ending himself?

Patterson's greatest crime-solving team since the Women's Murder Club is the Bird Sisters: Rhonda and Barbara. Baby Bird are half-sisters and full partners in their Los Angeles detective agency. They agree on nothing. Rhonda, a former attorney, takes a by-the-book approach to solving crimes, while teenage Baby Bird relies on her street smarts. But when they take a controversial case of a loner whose popular wife has gone missing, they're accused of being pigs who can't tell a client from a killer. The Bird Sisters share a late father but not much else, except their willingness to fight the system, fight for the underdog, fight for the truth. If they can stop fighting each other long enough to work together.
